Metropolitan Association championship is to be run over the official Var Cortlandt Park trail of three miles, with the field making two circuits of the hilly course. Four teams—frish-American, New York, Millrose and Yonkers Young Men's Association—will start teams, with the Celtic entrants favored. Hannes Kolehmainen, Frank Zuna, Tom Barden and Pat Flynn are among the representatives of the Irish club, and the expectation is they will win after a hard fight from the Millrose squad.

Hannes is the individual favorite, but Nick Gianakopulos and Russell Springsteen, the junior title holder, are sure to worry the Finn. Frank Marshall, of the Smart Set Athletic Club, is the only individual entrant.

It is believed that owing to their extensions and that while there was a possibility of the game continuing, it would be impossible for the team to make the showing that other Carlisle teams have in the past in intercollegiate competition. This was due largely to the number of Indians who are being educated in various industrial and manufacturing establishments, he said.

It developed that of the seventeen Indians employed in one of the large automobile factories, thirteen were on the football eleven, or had been in previous years. All returned to school when the football season opened, and in doing so sacrificed educational advantages and the opportunity to make money. Secretary Lane said that sween was intrinsically and that the average wage earned was high.
